SHARON WOOD

FIRST NORTH AMERICAN WOMAN TO CLIMB MOUNT EVEREST

Keynote Speaker - Climber

With lean resources, her small team pursued a bold vision: climb a new route on the world's highest mountain. Battling extreme conditions, they pushed the limits of human endurance - and made history.

Sharon Wood leads her audiences on an inspiring, personal odyssey, revealing the power of teamwork, leadership and courage.

Introducing Education Day Speaker Barb Bancroft.
Her topic for our education day session will focus on Diabetes and Pharmacology and their impact in the workplace.

Barb Bancroft RN, MSN, PNP is a widely acclaimed national speaker, noted for her humorous, entertaining and information packed seminars. She is author of the books Medical Minutes, An Apple a Day—the ABCs of Diet and Disease and Live a Little, Laugh a Lot.

Many people can conduct health seminars, or write books on health, but very few can make them both thoroughly informative and entertaining. Barb Bancroft makes complex health topics easily understandable, appealing and hilarious.

Barb has provided more than 2000 educational and motivational seminars on clinical topics and health maintenance topics to healthcare professionals and corporations throughout the US and Canada.

A graduate of East Carolina University and the University of Virginia, Barb has been the keynote speaker for many prestigious nursing conferences and has held graduate faculty positions at the University of Virginia and the University of Arkansas. She has provided courses on Advanced Pathophysiology, Pharmacology and Physical Assessment to both graduate and undergraduate students. She is currently the Executive Director and President of CPP Associates, Inc., a continuing education firm for corporations and healthcare professionals based in Chicago, Illinois.
